

84 18-C-02 The Taichung Sugar Plant historical building preservation program
To expropriate and re-organize the lands within a certain zone. Historic buildings in the certain zone can also be reserved and repaired. With the preservation and reactivation of historic buildings, in addition to retaining the memory of culture and reduce construction waste generated from demolition to achieve the goal of effect of carbon reduction.

