

Lappeenranta has promoted municipal citizens to move from private cars to public transport by starting in 2011 campaign "Let's take a bus". One part of this campaign is that people can use bus free of charge in a certain time. Over 200 000 more persons uses now public transport than in 2010.

