26 Promote One Vegetarian Day A Week in School and Selecting Local Ingredients

1. Encourage schools to blend in the content of energy saving and carbon reduction into the curriculum, starting to cultivate the energy saving and carbon reduction lifestyle and concept from childhood.
2. Encourage school to select local ingredients in priority, then to bring up citizen participation; taking “environmental protection and health” as appeal, promoting the importance of balance diet and integrating “low carbon diet” concept.