

Wonju Green Climate City Registration project

Overall

“Wonju Green Climate City Registration project” has been proceeded by Wonju city, Wonju Agenda21 and ICLEI-Local Governments for Sustainable Development from 2014 to 2015 in order to engage in climate change response in global mechanism.

Objectives

- To build up driving force and increase effectiveness of the policy implementation by connecting Wonju’s climate change response to international programs such as joining the Mexico city agreement and cCR registration etc.
- To manage wonju’s climate policies(Inventory building, Mitigation plan, implementation, Monitoring and evaluation)systematically and draw a consecutive and substantial outcome by strengthening cCR registration, reporting function of climate action of local governments

Key activities

- Building up foundation of Climate change response
 - Green house gas Inventory building
 - Green house gas emissions forecasts

- Evaluation of Green house gas mitigation potential
- Establishment of mitigation goal
- Mitigation plan and policy development

○ Strengthening city network and partnership between Local and global entities

- Green Climate City project brief session
- Green Climate City project workshop
- cCR registration
- Best practice report in both Korean and English